

MESSAGE TO FRATERNAL ORDERS

Interesting News from Cincinnati with Local Confirmation in Norway.

The thousands of members of fraternal bodies in this State will be interested in the following message from John Theobald, a prominent Forester who lives at 1111 York Street, Cincinnati.

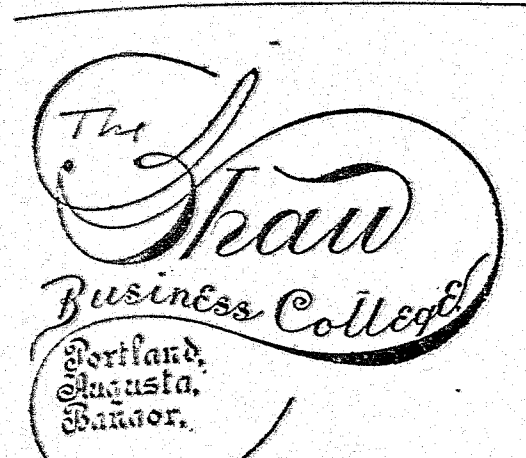

Mr. Theobald believes in living up to the motto of his organization, "Fraternal Love and Charity" and believes that he can do no more charitable act than to tell his experience in regaining health after years of suffering.

Mr. Theobald writes, "For five years, I suffered with stomach troubles, having at the distress and misery that afflicted me. I could not enjoy eating, the suffering that would follow. My food did not digest, and although I took all kinds of medicines, I found nothing to help me until used Mitchell's. Thanks to this remarkable remedy, I am now a cured man and believe that it made a permanent and complete cure."

Norway Drug Store are local agents for Mitchell's cure for dyspepsia. It is in form of small tablets and sells at 25c a box. The remedy has made so many and such remarkable cures among their customers, including Mr. Theobald's statement, that they will give their personal guarantee with every box they sell to refund the money if it does not cure.

Do not suffer longer. Here is a cure that costs you nothing unless it restores health. They take all the risk and you do not have to pay a penny unless you feel that you have received much more than your money's worth.

North Waterford Fair.

The annual cattle show at North Waterford this year was a successful one and one which reflected great credit upon the management. Any fair is subject to the caprices of the weather man and while the best of weather cannot save a very poor show, poor weather can injure the best fair ever planned. Friday and Saturday were not good fair days and the fair suffered to some extending, raw and cold, fairs and spectators shivered alike in the wind, the customary hubbub was subdued and discordant. Friday night for coldness broke all records. Saturday morning it was very cold, and until nearly noon it grew warmer then and by afternoon there was a crowd, considerably less than usual for the second day of the fair, but enough to make busy times and enjoy it all.

There were fewer fairs this year than last, the cattle display was not as good, the fruit and fancy work in the schoolhouse was slightly superior to a year ago.

What makes Waterford Fair is the people. Teams came from all over the town and all over the neighboring towns, all the family from oldest to youngest great great and old time friends chats. To the majority it is a large picnic, and is looked forward to for a full year.

Friday there was an attendance of some four hundred, who braved the discomforts of the day. The only feature beside the dancing at Odd Fellows hall afternoon and evening was the two classes of horse pulling.

Four entries were made in the class 2800 and under. R. S. Marston's span drew the lead 392 ft. 9 in.; Walter Gordon 383 feet 3 inches; George Stevens 358 feet 9 inches; J. H. McAllister 276 feet.

In the light class 2400 and under there were also four entries. R. S. Marston drew the winning team 285 feet; R. C.
Morrill the second 286 feet; Bert York made 68 feet and Ernest McAllister 62 feet 6 inches. The committee were Frank P. Towne, Frank Sanborn, C. H.
Fernald.

Saturday afternoon were drawn the horses in the sweepstake class. There were two pairs belonging to the Paris Manufacturing Company and driven by R. S. Marston. The boys drew the lead 230 feet 2 inches, the roans 297 feet.
The committee was the same as oxen and steers.

In the class of oxen 7 feet and over, R.
K. Morrill's black yoke drew the lead 33 feet, Calvin Abbott made 58 feet. The sweepstakes were won by K. K. Morrill 98 feet 2 inches, with Abbott second, 51 feet. In the light class 6 feet 8 and under, Mr. Hawley made 251 feet 8 inches and Calvin Abbott 1st foot 4 inches. The steers there was but one entry, Calvin Abbott and the committee decided to give him the first without trying them.

Committee, James Frost, George Fernald, C. H. Fernald.

A Saunter Up the Pike.
The feature most conspicuous by its absence was the merry-go-round. We missed its whistle and chug-chug of the engine, the strains of the organ, the sight of the dozens on horse and in coach riding. To young America an irreparable loss.

Two tinfy artists were present, both of whom have almost a regular rout of the fairs. They both had troubles the night before. W. E. Merrow, Lewiston, had the same tent as at the county fair. In the night his chemicals froze.
George Gustaf of Westbrook had a small tent which blew down Friday night.

W. V. Kerrigan, Lewiston, sold drinks, the same kind as at the Paris Nevers, Norway, frankforts, drinks, cigars, candy. Mrs. J. L. Sargent of Lewiston, sold jewelry, and also demonstrated Plexine, a toilet preparation. George Downing, Norway, sold ladies' sample shoes. Frank Beck, Norway, had a sale of chocolates and confectionery. W. H. well, South Paris, frankforts and confectionery.

J. E. Durrell ran a dodger and striking machine. Tom Potts, Brighton, sovercans, chains, etc. M. Doyle, North canes, ball range and striking machine.
Bert York, Dodge, had a table of con-game with coins as prizes, the coin winning is the coin you win, and a spinning arrow.

B. Alexander, Boston, sold glasses and spectacles. He complained that people's eyes were good.

D. F. Knight of Westfield, Mass., and George Silver of Concord, N. H. sold whips and had a good run of patronage.
Frank Stevens of Bethel sold nice jewelry. Chute and Rogers, Naples, had frankforts, beer and cigars. J. T. Lewis had a small stock of wearing apparel displayed and on sale. G. L. Fernald, Norway, sold candies, beer and cigars.
H. C. Wallace of South Paris had a ball range.

Madam Zita, palmist, read the fortunes of her patrons. M. Hertz, Lewiston, frankforts, peanuts, cigars. George E.
Jackson, N. H., frankforts, confectionery, fruit and sodas. There was a museum of horrors which was not well patronized. S. Anderson ran a knife board and a ping pong board. H. Stanley of Bethel ran a paddle game of the ball range variety.

Most of the drinkables were supposed to cooling, but just when the ADVERTIS-ER man was the coldest he came to F.
L. Starbird's lunch tent and got a cup of hot coffee. It was welcome sure. C. H.
Magoon of Waite's River, Vermont, had a large line of very jewelry, of every description, souvenirs in considerable quantity. F. J. Libby of Portland, had a team of lobsters that looked fine.
Dick Landry ran an African dodger. W.
A. Wallace sold candy, cigars and beer.
Twitcomb Bros., Oxford, had team loads of peanuts, fruit, grapes and peaches.
Barney's traveling lunch cart from Lewiston was patronized by the hundreds.

The Cattle Show.
There are excellent cattle owned in Waterford, Stoneham and Albany, and some of it was shown at the fair, together with a little from Norway entered in the pulling classes. The cold weather reduced this display greatly from last year, but it was a fair showing. George G. Abbott and sons, Norway, had a pair working oxen, a pair 3 year olds, a pair yearling steers and a calf. R. E. Herrick, Norway, 1 yoke oxen, M. L. Palmer, pair yearling steers; Guy Johnson, Albany, pair 2-year-olds; Arthur R. Millett, North Waterford, pair yearling steers; D. H. Lebroke, North Waterford, Jersey and Holstein heifer; Charles H.
Rice, cow.

E. L. Pike, South Waterford, had a head, 4-year-old Holstein bull, yearling bull, 12 cows and heifers, 2 pair Durham oxen. He exhibited also the only sheep on the grounds, and the only sow with pigs, Ohio White Chester. George I.
Kimball, a Chester boar.

Frank Bell, a pair 2-year-old steers; Charles McKee, East Stoneham, 3 pair yearling steers; Lawrence W. Marston, Waterford, pair calves; G. C. Kneeland, Waterford, pair 2-year-olds; W. H. Chadbourne, Waterford, pair oxen, pair 2-year-old steers; C. B. Learned, pair oxen;
C. B. Learned, Jr., pair yearling steers;
F. L. Pike, Duke of Cotteville
Valley, No. 216,939, yearling Shorthorn bull, 2 pair 3-year-olds, pair yearling steers, 2 yearling heifers, 2 Durham cows; R. K. Morrill, Norway, pair Holstein and Durham working oxen.

The Waterford town team was the only one made up, and comprised oxen and steers owned by Ernest Pike 2 pairs, Will Chadbourne 2 pairs, H. M. Fiske 3 pairs, C. B. Learned 1 pair, C. B.
Learned, Jr., 1 pair.

Horse Department.
There were but few horses entered in the display classes. M. L. Pike, Albany, showed the all-time best, a pair yearling steers; Lawrence W. Marston, Waterford, pair calves; G. C. Kneeland,
Waterford, pair 2-year-olds; W. H. Chadbourne, Waterford, pair oxen, pair 2-
year-old steers; C. B. Learned, pair oxen;
C. B. Learned, Jr., pair yearling steers;
F. L. Pike, Duke of Cotteville
Valley, No. 216,939, yearling Shorthorn
bull, 2 pair 3-year-olds, pair yearling
steers, 2 yearling heifers, 2 Durham
cows; R. K. Morrill, Norway, pair Holstein and Durham working oxen.

The Waterford town team was the
only one made up, and comprised oxen
and steers owned by Ernest Pike 2 pairs,
pairs, C. B. Learned 1 pair, C. B.

The Fall Display.
As has been already stated the display of fruit, vegetables and fancy work would do credit to a fair of much greater pretensions than this one. Held as it was in the modern schoolhouse of the village, the best available place, it was the Macon of the ladies and many of the men. Hanging beside the door as one entered were two fine traces of yellow corn grown by J. D. Hort.

George A. Kenerson, Norway, had a corner with all sorts of woven wire covers, watches and jewelry, and had a good run of trade. Mrs. George Bouttelle of West Paris represented the Woman's Mutual Benefit society and also had toilet preparations on sale.

About the walls were hanging quilts and table covers, which were excellent specimens of needlework. M. Ella Charles, woolen quilt; Mrs. E. L. Morey, Albany, plush table cover; Pearl Le-broke, woolen quilt; Rilla Marston, plush quilt; Mrs. L. J. Gammon, West Stoneham, quilt with 6384 inch squares; A. M. Chadbourne, braided rug, drawn rug; Mrs. C. D. Moulton, wool quilt, knit rug; Celia F. Millett, table cover, silk quilt containing 2500 inch squares.

Other fancy work was: Hazel M. Kimball, crochet work; Mrs. L. J. Gammon, sofa pillow; M. Ella Charles, embroidered flowers on plush; Ellen R. Millett, pillow; lampmat, collar; Mrs. Irving Green, corset cover, mat; Mrs. Edith McIntire, handkerchief; Mrs. Louise Knight, lamp mat; Lulu McIntire, doily; Mrs. W. D. Moulton, apron, handkerchief; Mrs. Lydia Sawin, sofa pillow; Ellen R. Millett, collar; Hazel M. Kimball, crocheted piece; Mary Dresser, crocheted mat, fascinator, sweater; A. M.
Chadbourne, yarn, gloves, hose.

Lydia Dresser, hose; Mrs. Lydia Saw-in, mittens, Annie E. York, collar, pillow top; Pearl Lebroke, mat, trimming; Fannie C. Burnham, tatted collar; Fiske, Baldwin, mat of 16 inch squares, 30 ribbons of Oxford County fair; Mrs.
Edith McIntire, sofa pillow; Marion Goodidge, two pillow tops; Blanche Millett, sweater.

There was some fine looking fruit and vegetables. W. K. Parker, 5 plates New-heads, 1 plate Golden Russets, 2 plates Black apples, 6 plates Baldwin's, 2 plates Pippins, 2 plates Wealthy, 2 plates Blue Pearmain, potatoes, tomatoes, cabbage, squash, onions, corn and other vegetables, taking up a whole table.

Henry Sawin, 31 varieties of apples including American Beauty, Alexander, Hubbardston, 20 Quince, Bellsflower, Russet, Strawberry, Black, Honey, Westfield, Golden Russet, Nodhead, Pawkie, Baldwin, King Winter Sweet, Orange, McIntosh Red, Wealthy, Haas, N. Y.
Greening, Fuller, 2 plates pears.

Part of Flatt Albany, cucumbers; Mrs. W. D. Moulton, crab apple jelly, Red Astrachan jelly; Waterford town farm, Crown Jersey potatoes, unknown variety; G. M. Knight, 2 plates Northern Spys, Nodhead, Baldwin, Pearmain.

H. M. Fiske & Son, Brookside farm, Beauty of Hebron, Crown Jersey, Mon-tain and Early Rose potatoes, beets and corn, Baldwin, Northern Spy, Pearmain, Wealthy, Ben Davis, Nodhead, Strawberry, Black Oxford apples. Mrs. Austin Hutchinson, cheese; Freeman Audrews, trace corn, trace popcorn, 2 lots potatoes; Mrs. George Early, Early Rose potatoes; Geo. Kimball, Early Six Weeks, Pride of America, unknown potatoes.

Waterford town farm, 4 1/2 lb. pumpkin, 50 lb. squash; E. B. Pike, pumpkins and squash; Dell Kilgore, Norway Lake, huge potato; Mrs. Guy Bean, cheese; D.
H. Lebroke, Red Butter apples; A. M.
Bean, Baldwin's, Bellsflower, American Beauty, Blue Pearmain, Black apples.

J. D. Hort, Wallridge, Snow, 3 lots not labeled; Wellington Bird, Blue Pear-main, Northern Spy, King Tompkins; H. A. Bickford, Nodhead, Suttons, Beauty, McIntosh Red, Magpie, Greenly pippin. One plate not labeled.

On the steps of the hall was a 70 lb. pumpkin grown by Sylvester Adams of West Stoneham. A poultry display which was not too bad was arranged outside the building in a sheltered corner.
The exhibitors were as follows: E. W.
Rice, coop goslings, coop geese; Ralph E. Rice, pair geese; F. W. Knight, coop Rhode Island Reds; D. W. Adams, coop White Wyandottes; E. B. York, coop White Plymouth Rocks; Bert J. Flint, coop Brown Leghorn fowl, coop Brown Leghorn chicks.

Fought Fire.
About 1 o'clock Saturday, shouts of fire were repeatedly heard near the road above the church. Upon investigation it was found that a camp on the land of James Brown owned by his son had caught perhaps from some intoxicated man's carelessness and was in flames.
Very close to it were several horses hitched and wagons standing. Prompt action was necessary in order to save them from injury. The camp stood among small trees and bushes. The fire ran along the dry leaves and bushes and dry brush upon a wall, but was kept within a limited area by the use of switches and hoses in the grass. After a while water buckets were found, filled from a well near and extinguished what was left of burning timbers and blazing bushes.

In the camp was a 30-30 rifle and a single barrel shot gun, both loaded, and the popping of cartridges added to the excitement of fire fighting. Both guns were completely ruined, the magazine of the rifle being exploded.

Heart on the Common.
A bicyclist coming down town, long hill for no apparent reason whatever went off his wheel and into a pile of dirt, Saturday afternoon. After seeing he was unhurt he was the target of several hundred remarks of varying degrees of un-complimentaryness.

The Congregational ladies served dinner as usual both days in the vestry.
They fed about seventy-five the first day and three hundred the second.

A ball game, Saturday afternoon, was played in J. D. Hort's field between North Waterford and South Waterford teams. The former team won 17 to 15.
The features of the game were heavy bitting, poor fielding and strenuous kicking.

The annual meeting was postponed to Saturday, Oct. 22.

The dances both afternoons and evenings drew a large but orderly crowd.
The orchestra was four pieces and the same men as have commonly been the players.

EAST WATERFORD.

Needless Shooting Frightens Game.
The hunters have gone in a body, having shot no game except a grey squirrel and a rabbit. They found out words true, that so much target shooting had frightened the valuable game and beyond their reach. The neighbors stoutly objected to their shooting across their pastures among their cattle. Old Metalluk, the lone Indian hunter of the Magalloway, was always greatly disturbed by any needless shooting on or near his hunting grounds. "Scare um hootuk. Run away tight, no see em."

Ernest Bean is digging potatoes for George Hilton. The yield is heavy but the rot is bad, affecting nearly one-half. Ground too rich perhaps. Albert B. Bean from 3/4 of an acre of land harvested over 60 bushels of fine tubers with no rot. His apples were not in the least injured by the frost.
It was Joe Haskell's pretty driving horse which came so near being shot for an Albino deer, not a calf as printed last week. There was where the ADVERTISER got into trouble. The word was left out of the copy and after due thought it was concluded that a white calf would look more like a deer than any other domestic animal.

ANDOVER.

Funeral of Haskell Bailey.
The funeral services of Haskell Bailey were attended at his late residence on Tuesday, a. m., Oct. 4th, at 10 o'clock. Rev. Samuel Holden officiating. There was a good attendance, as all desired to express their appreciation of this good man, who has been a most faithful church member for more than 50 years. It is not quite a year since his good wife was called to her heavenly home. Never were people more constant and faithful to attend church than this worthy couple, and we believe they will receive a rich reward. Mr. Bailey had passed his 80th birthday. He attended church until a very short time before his death. He leaves a son, John L. Bailey, who lives on the home place and with whom he had lived most of his life. One daughter, Mrs. Henry Farrar of Rumford survives him. We can truly say, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."
